TO THE SELECT AND COMMON COUNCILS.

THE Committee appointed to inquire if there be any manuscripts relating to the city worthy of being printed, and report the same with the probable expense,

RESPECTFULLY REPORT:

That from among many curious and interesting documents existing in the archives of the city, they have selected one, which in their opinion has peculiar and paramount claims at this time to the attention of Councils—it is entitled,

"Minutes of the proceedings of the Committee appointed on the 14th day of September, 1793, by the citizens of Philadelphia, the Northern Liberties, and the District of Southwark, to attend to, and alleviate the sufferings of the afflicted with the malignant fever prevalent in the city, and its vicinity; with an Appendix."

Your Committee therefore recommend that they be authorized to cause the said "Minutes" to be printed in conformity with a resolution annexed hereto, which they further respectfully beg leave to submit.

In relation to these "Minutes," your Committee deem it proper to state—that in addition to their intrinsic value as illustrations of the history of our city during a season of frightful calamity, and of the almost total prostration of its government and industry—they furnish also appropriate means of gratitude—by perpetuating in a permanent form the records of the heroic self-devotion, and chivalric deeds of those noble men who so fearlessly exposed themselves, amid disease and death, to rescue the lives and property of their fellow-citizens from destruction, and for the care and protection of the helpless and pestilence-made orphan. Such testimony of gratitude is due, and especially to the memory of the venerated Stephen Girard;—whose subsequent munificent benefactions, great as they are, have afforded no higher evidence of his beneficence, generosity and usefulness.

Among the names of Mr. Girard's associates will be found the following:—

MATTHEW CLARKSON, (Mayor) President,
SAMUEL WETHERILL, Vice-President,
THOMAS WISTAR, Treasurer,
CALEB LOWNES, Secretary of the Committee.

JAMES SHARSWOOD,	JAMES KERR,
MATTHEW CAREY,	JOHN HAWORTH,
JOHN CONNELLY,	JAMES SWAIN,
ISRAEL ISRAEL,	WILLIAM CLIFTON,
THOMAS SAVERY,	HENRY DEFOREST,
JOHN LETCHWORTH,	JONATHAN D. SERGEANT,
PETER HELM,	JOSEPH INSKEEP,
THOMAS HARRISON,	ANDREW ADGATE,

DANIEL OFFLEY.

The four last named members of the Committee, "perseveringly discharged with most benevolent attention their various duties, until death put a period to their exertions, and they fell under the blow they were warding off from others."

THOMAS WISTAR, is at this time, the only surviving member of the Committee.

Together with the daily records of the Committee of citizens, there are reports of Doctors Physick, Leib, Cathrall, Annan, Duſfield, Deveze, and others;—a list of the names of the sick who were admitted, died, or were discharged at the Hospital, Bush-hill; an account of the contributions in money, food, clothing and medicines for the use of the poor and sick received by the Committee from citizens of Philadelphia residing in the neighbourhood, and from the State of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Massachusetts, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia;—a list of the orphans, &c.

Committee Room, January 11, 1848.

CHARLES A. POULSON, Chairman,
SAUNDERS LEWIS,
ISAAC ELLIOTT,
ALGERNON S. ROBERTS,
Committee on Printing.

Resolved, That the "Joint Special Committee appointed to inquire if there be any manuscripts relating to the city worthy of being printed, and report the same with the probable expense," be authorized to cause to be printed, in the same manner and form as the Journal of Councils from 1704 to 1776, five hundred copies of the manuscript entitled "Minutes of the proceedings of the Committee appointed on the 14th day of September, 1793, by the citizens of Philadelphia, the Northern Liberties, and the District of Southwark, to attend to, and alleviate the sufferings of the afflicted with the malignant fever prevalent in the city and its vicinity; with an Appendix." Provided the expense thereof does not exceed the sum of three hundred dollars.

Passed by Councils January 20, 1848.
THOMAS BIRCH, JR.,
Clerk of the Common Council.

 The following "Minutes" are a faithful and exact copy from the original manuscript in the archives of Councils.

THE FOLLOWING ADDRESS

WAS PUBLISHED IN THE NEWSPAPERS.

To the Benevolent Citizens.

Those of the overseers of the poor, who attend to the care of the unfortunate now labouring under the prevailing malignant disorder, are almost overcome with the fatigue they undergo, and require immediate assistance. This, it is hoped, may be found among the benevolent citizens, who actuated by a willingness to contribute their aid in the present distress, will offer themselves as volunteers to support the active overseers in the discharge of what they have undertaken. For which purpose, those who are thus humanely disposed, are requested to apply to the Mayor, who will point out to them how they may be useful.

September 10*th*, 1793.

In compliance with the preceeding Address, a Number of Citizens met at the City-Hall on the 12th September, 1793.

The Mayor in the Chair.

Mr. James Wilson, an overseer of the poor, reported the situation of the sick and poor at Bush-Hill, and that Dr. Physic, Dr. Cathral, Dr. Annan and Dr. Leib, are the attending Physicians at that place.

The following persons offered to assist the Overseers of the Poor, viz:

Samuel Wetherill,	Henry Deforest,
Israel Israel,	Thomas Peters,

The report of the committee appointed at the last meeting to make enquiry into the situation of the afflicted under the present prevailing malignant disorder in the city, being produced, was read and is as follows.

Philadelphia, September 12th, 1793.

"At a meeting of a number of citizens held at the Court House, this evening, in consequence of an appointment of the Mayor and others, convened at the City-Hall, to take into consideration the present calamitous state of the city and its environs.

Thomas T. Peters,	Caleb Lownes,

Samuel Wetherill in the chair.

"Having made enquiry into the situation of the poor and afflicted, they are of opinion, that it is not in the power of the overseers and guardians of the Poor to afford the necessary aid which the cases of the sick require, that the citizens be again convened, in order that some effectual means may be used, and a plan adopted to mitigate, and if possible to afford relief to the afflicted, both in the city and at the Hospital at Bush-Hill.

On motion,

"Resolved, That the Secretary be directed to publish the foregoing minute, and to request the citizens to attend a meeting, to be held at the City-Hall at 12 o'clock, on the 14th instant: and that in the mean time Israel Israel, Thomas Wistar, and Caleb Lownes, be desired to confer with the Physicians who have the charge of the sick at Bush-Hill, and obtain information of their

The committee appointed to confer with the Physicians who have the charge of the sick at Bush-Hill,

Report, That they have attended to their appointment, and have produced the following account of the situation of that Hospital, as given by Doctors Cathral and Physick.

"That the Hospital is without order or arrangement, far from being clean, and stands in immediate need of several qualified persons to begin and establish the necessary arrangements. There are five or six female attendants; but none qualified for the proper management of the sick.—It is attended by four Physicians, viz: Doctors Cathral, Physic, Annan and Leib—the latter is indisposed, and unable to attend.

That there are immediately wanted,

A person qualified to arrange and manage a Hospital as Steward.

A person qualified to act as Barber and Bleeder,—and eight nurses.

That it is unnecessary to enumerate all the wants: they are numerous, and call for speedy attention, but the above mentioned require instant attention, which, when supplied, will reduce the number to a few, and render the institution useful and beneficial.

Whereupon, it was agreed that the following propositions be laid before the general meeting of the citizens, viz:

1. That a sum of money be instantly procured.

2. That a large committee be appointed from the different parts of the City, Southwark, and the Northern Liberties, to aid the sick and distressed.

3. That they have full power to act as circumstances may require.

4. That they keep a just account of their proceedings and expenditures, and report to a future general meeting of the citizens.

"Resolved, That the Chairman and Secretary attend the ensuing general meeting with the proceedings of the committee.

Extract from the minutes,

CALEB LOWNES, Secretary."

Agreed unanimously, that fifteen hundred dollars be immediately procured for the purpose of furnishing suitable accommodation and supplies for the use of the afflicted under the prevailing malignant fever, and that Thomas Harrison, Thomas Wistar, and Caleb Lownes, be appointed a Committee to procure the said sum at the Bank of North America.

That

Matthew Clarkson, Mayor of the city,

Samuel Wetherill,	John Connelly,
Jon. D. Sergeant,	Jacob Weaver,
Caleb Lownes,	John McCulloch,
Thomas Wistar,	Joseph Inskeep,
Israel Israel,	William Robinson,

That they, or a majority of them, have full powers to appropriate such sums as may be necessary for obtaining supplies, for compensating those who may be employed in the business under their direction, that they keep a fair account of their proceedings and expenditures, and report to a future meeting of the citizens.

Resolved,

That MATTHEW CLARKSON, be President of the board,

SAMUEL WETHERILL, Vice President.

THOMAS WISTAR, Treasurer, and

CALEB LOWNES, Secretary.

Resolved, That the said committee take under their consideration the propriety of providing suitable accommodations for the reception of such as may hereafter be afflicted by similar complaints, and to guard against the dangers to which this city is exposed from its increased trade and population, and the danger which the daily arrivals from foreign parts, where malignant disorders are frequently prevalent, constantly subject it to, and to report thereon at a future meeting.

Resolved, that their offers be accepted, and that they be encouraged immediately to enter upon the important duties of their appointment.

Stephen Girard, reports, "that the Hospital is advancing fast towards order and regularity—and that more effectually to promote the objects of the committee, there ought to be a place procured for the accommodation of the convalescent." The Secretary is requested to make enquiry and endeavour to procure a house for that purpose.

He also reports, "that Doctor De Veze had visited the Hospital, that he appears to be a professional character, and that from the information he has received of his abilities and practise in Cape Francois, from persons who were intimately acquainted with him at that place, he believes him well qualified to perform the duties of a Physician at the Hospital at Bush-Hill." Whereupon it was resolved that the doctor be desired to give his attendance at the Hospital.

James Kerr is desired to provide a horse and chair for the use, and to be at the command of the Doctor.

The manager further reports, "that the sick stand in immediate need of a variety of articles for their accommodation and use, a list of which he now presents to the committee." The Secretary is desired to cause them to be procured and forwarded to the Hospital as early as possible.

Resolved, that the committee continue their sittings constantly at the City-Hall, until the situation of the Hospital, and afflicted in the city shall render it proper to adjourn.

The Secretary reports, "that he has made enquiry respecting a suitable place for accommodating the convalescents, that the large stone barn at Bush-Hill appears to be the most suitable place for the purpose which could be obtained. On consideration, it was resolved, that Israel Israel be desired to send a sufficient number of persons to remove the hay and other things which are in the barn, to a place where they may be secured from loss or damage, and that the managers be instructed to take measures for fitting up that place for the accommodation of the convalescent.

NOON.

They also report, "that a number of patients are admitted after the visiting Physicians have returned to the city, who have no relief till the next day at eleven o'clock, and that many suffer for want of the above regulation." Which being taken under consideration, it was resolved, that a Physician be employed who will give his constant attendance, and that as soon as possible.

Peter Barriere and Stephen Crousillat attended the committee and informed them, that Joseph Mercier and wife are dead, and have left two infant children, twins, about fifteen months old, without any person to take care of them (or the effects left by the deceased, which are said to be of considerable value) except a servant girl whose character is unknown, which being taken into consideration, it is resolved, that James Kerr and John Letchworth be a committee to make enquiry into the circumstances,—obtain an account of the property and return it to the committee;—procure suitable places for the infants and take such other measures as may be proper on the occasion.

The committee on the foregoing business report, "that they have been to the dwelling of the late Joseph Mercier, have taken the necessary steps to secure the property and have brought with them the following effects, which are directed to be placed in the hands of the Treasurer to be held until legally called for, viz. one morocco pocket-book, contents unknown, three gold watches with the ornaments, one pair silver buckles, fourteen silver table spoons, two silver table forks, eleven tea spoons and one snuff box.

Present,

MATTHEW CLARKSON, President.

Israel Israel,	Andrew Adgate,
Jonathan D. Sergeant,	Samuel Benge,
Joseph Inskeep,	Henry Deforest,
James Sharswood,	John Letchworth,
Thomas Wistar, Treas.	Thomas Harrison,
James Kerr,	James Swain,
Thomas Savery,	John Connelly, and

Caleb Lownes, Secretary.

Stephen Girard and Peter Helm at the Hospital.

Resolved, that the managers of the Hospital, at Bush-Hill, have the entire direction at that place; and that they be empowered to employ and discharge such persons as they may think proper.

The Physicians agreeably to notice, attended, viz. Doctors Physick, Cathral, Leib and Annan—when a conference was had respecting the state of the Hospital and the mode of affording medical assistance.

After some time spent upon the subject, the Physicians produced the following propositions.

"1. That the Physicians will attend regularly every day at eleven o'clock in the morning.

2. That for this attendance they shall have two guineas a visit each.

3. That Mr. Graham be prescribing Apothecary, to attend to those patients who are admitted in the absence of the Physicians, and that he be provided with two or more assistants in the Apothecaries duties.

4. That Doctors, Leib, Physick, Cathral and Annan, have the entire direction of the Hospital, to be arranged in such manner as they shall judge proper; and that in case of the indisposition of either, he will provide a medical friend to attend for him."

Which being considered, were agreed to, with the addition of the following viz:

That a room at the Hospital be appropriated to the use of such patients as are desirous of being under the direction of Doctor Deveze: that he procure the necessary medicine for his patients, to be made up at the expense of the committee, and if necessary, that he provide a person to administer them.

The President produced a letter from a citizen, complaining of the route taken by the carters employed to remove the dead from the Hospital; which being considered it was agreed, that the carters be directed to proceed in future, from the Hospital down broad street to Walnut street, thence to the place of interment.

The prevailing calamity having deprived a number of children of their parents and guardians, and rendered many of the latter who have survived, incapable of affording those under their care the necessary support and protection;

The committee conceive it to be a duty incumbent on them to attend to these, as well as to sufferers of other descriptions who are labouring under the prevailing disorder, and to use their endeavours to provide for their comfortable accommodation and support.

On motion, Resolved, that a house be provided for the accommodation of such; and that suitable provision be made for their support: that Israel Israel, James Kerr and Thomas Harrison be a committee to carry the foregoing resolution into execution.

The managers Report that there are a variety of articles wanted for the use of the Hospital, which are directed to be obtained and forwarded as soon as possible.

Doctors Cathral, Leib and Physick attended at the Hospital this day.

The Physicians anxiously wish that the committee would endeavour to prevail upon our fellow citizens to send those who are designed for the Hospital, as early as possible after they take the disorder; as the chance of recovery in case of an immediate removal is very flattering, but that the contrary must be expected to be the consequence of delay. The Secretary is directed to cause this to be published in the news papers.

The managers report, that they have buried, eight persons from the Hospital since last evening, Seventeen have been sent out, and orders were issued for the interment of six persons this day, from the City-Hall. Twenty patients not visited.

The managers of the Hospital inform the committee "that they have received a copy of the resolution of yesterday relative to the appointment of Physicians, and having given it due consideration, are of opinion, that it will not be productive of the benefit desired; and having offered several forcible objections to the mode,—the committee again went into consideration of this important subject; after considerable time spent thereon it was agreed to rescind the resolution of yesterday—and that the patients be separated into two divisions, that each division have a distinct appointment, and that the nomination of Physicians be left to the managers, Stephen Girard and Peter Helm.

Agreed that they be admitted into the Hospital at Bush-Hill.

There being a number of French sailors and soldiers in the Prison, belonging to the army and navy of the Republic of France, at the suit of the minister of that Republic, whose continuance may be attended with alarming consequences should the prevailing disorder be introduced into the prison, it becomes an indispensible duty to use means to have them removed as early as possible,—The Mayor is requested to write to the minister of France upon the subject, and have them discharged from confinement in that place.

The following letter from Richard Varick, Esqr. Mayor of the city of New York, dated 12th Instant, was this day received, which the president was desired to answer.

New York, October 12th, 1793.

Sir,

I am requested by the Common Council of this city to inform you, that the committee appointed "to prevent the introduction and spreading of infectious diseases," consisting of seven members expressly chosen for the purpose by the citizens at large, and an equal number of the members of our board, of which Mr. John Broome is the chairman, have laid before the copies of the correspondence, between them and you on the subject of supplies to be furnished by the citizens of this city, for the relief of the poorer and more distressed of your fellow citizens, under the heavy pressure of their present calamity and that disorganized state of your city police, which must necessarily attend so unexpected and afflicting a dispensation of Divine Providence.

Although I sincerely lament the cause of this correspondence, it is with pleasure I do announce to you that the Common Council of this city, deeply impressed with the awful judgment of the Almighty on the American Nation, in permitting a pestilential disease to lay waste and disorganize that once populous, well regulated and flourishing sister city, the seat of Empire, by destroying the lives of many valuable patriots and citizens and by driving many other of its numerous and very opulent and useful inhabitants into exile, they have caused five thousand dollars to be placed in my hands, and have directed it to be paid to the order of the Chief Magistrate of Philadelphia, and they have requested me to advise you of this measure and pray you to draw on me therefor; you will therefore be pleased to draw upon me for that sum; at sight, and your bill will be duly honored.

May Almighty God, in condesending mercy to your devoted city, speedily stay the progress of the desolating disease and say it is enough; and may you Sir, and those with you who have remained faithful to your trust and borne the heat and burden of the day, in the midst of surrounding and threatning dangers be the peculiar care of Heaven, is the sincere wish and prayer of

Sir, Your most Obedient,
Humble Servant,
RICHARD VARICK.

Matthew Clarkson, Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

City of New-York. } ss.

At a Common Council held on Friday the 11th day of October 1793.

Resolved, that this board will provide the sum of five thousand dollars, for the relief of the poorer and most distressed citizens of Philadelphia, under the pressure of their present great calamity.

Extract from the minutes,
ROBERT BENSON, Clerk.

On Motion Resolved, That a committee be appointed to settle the accounts of the different members of the committee who have received monies from the treasurer, and that John Connelly and James Sharswood be this committee.

Resolved, That the secretary apply to Mazrie and William Boyce for their assistance in taking charge of the property of the orphan children, who now are or hereafter may become objects of the care of this committee.

Resolved, That a well qualified accountant be employed, for keeping the accounts of the committee, and that Matthew Carey, be appointed to procure one.

That an exact list be obtained of the daily burials in each ground in this city and vicinity.

From accounts received from different quarters of the city, it is evident that the disorder now raging, has for the last week been more general and alarming than at any time since its appearance—its greatest height being about the 12th, the mortality at the Hospital also at that period, being greater than at any other time.

Whether it is owing to the extreme malignancy of the disease, neglect, or delay of sending the patients to the Hospital in the early stage of the disease cannot be determined; it is remarkable that the greater part of those who die, terminate their existence within three days after their admission, many on the next day after, and frequent instances occur of their dying on the passage to the Hospital.

The managers Report, that sixteen men and four women have this day been received into the Hospital and five men, and five women buried from thence.

John Scriminger; Mary, John, Margaret, Norry and George Grogan; Kitty King; Elizabeth Neaves and Ann McGlaughlin, were admitted into the Orphan House.

Orders were issued this day from the City-Hall for the interment of thirteen persons.

Benjamin Wistar Morris, handed to the committee the following checks, being the benevolent donations of the persons by whom they are severally subscribed, amounting to one thousand and sixty two dollars, which were placed in the Bank of North-America.

Samuel Pleasants & Sons,	60	Jesse & Robert Waln, -	200

The president presented to the committee his draft dated the 17th Instant, upon Richard Varick, Esq. Mayor of the city of New-York, in favor of the President and Directors of the Bank of North-America, for the sum of five thousand dollars, the benevolent donation of the Common Council of that city.

Which bill being delivered at the Bank; the amount was passed to the credit of the Treasurer of the committee.

An answer to the letter from the Mayor of New-York, was this day forwarded by post, copy of which is as follows,

Sir,

I am favored with your letter of the 12th Inst. which I have communicated to the committee for the relief of the poor and afflicted of this City.

It is with peculiar satisfaction that I execute their request by making in their name, on behalf of our suffering fellow citizens, the most grateful acknowledgements for the seasonable benevolence of the Common Council of the city of New York; their sympathy is balm to our wounds.

We acknowledge the divine interposition, whereby the hearts of so many around us have been touched with our distress and have united in our relief.

May the Almighty disposer of all events be graciously pleased to protect your citizens from the dreadful calamity with which we are now visited! whilst we humbly kiss the rod and improve by the dispensation.

The part Sir! which you personally take in our afflictions and which you have so pathetically expressed in your letter, excites in the breasts of the committee the warmest sensations of fraternal affection.

The refreshing rain which fell the day before yesterday, though light, and the cool weather which hath succeeded, appear to have given a check to the prevalence of the disorder; of this we have satisfactory proofs; as well in the decrease of the funerals, as in the applications for removal to the Hospital.

I have at your request, this day drawn upon you, at sight, in favor of the President and Directors of the Bank of North America, for the sum of five thousand dollars, the benevolent donation of the Common Council of the city of New-York.

With sentiments of the greatest esteem and regard,

I am,

Sir, Your most

Obedient humble Servant,

MATTHEW CLARKSON.

Received a letter from Peter Gordon and Abraham G. Claypoole dated Trenton, 23d October, informing that a subscription was begun there for the relief of the poor and distressed citizens of Philadelphia and requesting to be informed whether money or other articles would be most acceptable.

A letter from Joseph Potts of Potts-Grove 22 Inst. was received, informing of his having forwarded two hundred and twelve fowls from the inhabitants of Douglass township, to Peter Robinson's Mill for the use of the poor; Henry Deforest, is requested to send a waggon for them.

Received one hundred and sixty dollars from the inhabitants of Norris-Town, by the hands of John Pugh and Thomas W. Tallman for the use of the sick.

The committee appointed to the care of the orphans made the following Report, of their proceedings, which the Secretary is directed to hand to the Printer of the Federal Gazette for publication, viz.

"To the committee appointed for the relief of the sick and poor, afflicted with the prevailing malignant disease.

The committee appointed to the care of the orphans Report, that on the 19th September, they engaged a house belonging to William Ralston, in fifth street, for the accommodation of the orphans under the care of the committee; and on the same day they engaged Mary Parvin as Matron, and placed thirteen children under her care; and between that time and the 13th October fourteen more were added to their number.

That from the frequent applications for admission, it was necessary to procure a more commodious place, which by direction of the committee they obtained. This house was formerly occupied, and is known by the name of the Loganian Library; it is the property of John Swanwick, Esq. and although it was rented to a person who then occupied it, the exertions of that Gentleman soon prevailed, and we obtained possession, with the concurrence of the tenant, on the 1st Instant.

Your committee further Report, that from that time to the present, they have employed three men and seven women to assist the matron.

That they have agreed with Doctor Samuel Duffield to visit the house, and afford such medical aid as may be necessary; and they doubt not but from the well known character of this Gentleman, that due attention will be paid to such cases as may require his assistance.

That the children have now become so numerous, that notwithstanding additional buildings have been erected for the purposes of washing, &c. they found it necessary to add another room of about 30 feet by 14, which it is expected will soon be completed.

That from the first establishment of this institution to this day, there hath been one hundred and fifty nine children admitted, forty three of whom are now out at nurse, who appear to be well taken care of; thirty one have been delivered to their relations or friends, eight have died, viz. six of those who were at nurse and two in the house; seventy seven remain in the house and are in general healthy and cheerful.

That your committee are perfectly satisfied with the conduct of the matron, as well of those who are employed under her direction.

It may not be improper to remark; that many of the children have not lost both their parents; but when one of them is deceased, and the other sick, it has been the uniform practice of the committee to admit the children into the orphan house.

The committee will only add, that they keep regular minutes of their proceedings, which are always open to the inspection of the members of the general committee.

Israel Israel, John Letchworth,
James Sharswood, James Kerr."

The following Letter was received from Ambrose Varinot who was in possession of the house.

PHILADELPHIA October 4th, 1793.

Gentlemen,

It was notified to me a few days ago, that you wanted the house in Sixth street, known formerly under the name of Logan's Library, part whereof I then occupied, for the purpose of accommodating the orphan children, who have lost their parents, by the unhappy disorder which now rages in our city, and the care whereof you have humanely taken upon you. The house was particularly calculated on account of its situation and the height of its ceiling, for the purpose of my works; I had made some repairs to the windows and a closet in the garret, and in order better to secure the possession of the house—I have paid forty eight dollars, or one half years rent, before hand; but knowing that private convenience and emolument must always give way to public utility and particularly at a time of general calamity as the present is, I thought it my duty to submit without opposition, and found myself happy to have it in my power to contribute my mite towards your benevolent purposes; I therefore cheerfully removed to the house pointed out to me, though far less suitable to my purposes than the one I have quitted, and will most willingly content myself there, until times alter; I only wish to know upon what terms I am in the house I now occupy, what the rent thereof is, and who is to pay it, as I can hardly think, that it is expected I shall pay the rent here again, having paid in the other house the rent before hand until the 18th day of January next as before mentioned. I have therefore thought it my duty to lay these circumstances before you, and humbly beg that you will be pleased to give me the necessary elucidation in this respect, and that in case circumstances should render the house in sixth street no longer necessary for your purposes, you will be pleased to give me the preference to re-enter into the same again.

I am with great respect,

Gentlemen,

Your most

Obedient humble Servant,

AMBROSE VARINOT.

To the committee appointed to take care of the orphans who have lost their parents in the present disease.

P. S. If it should please the committee to indemnify me with respect to the rent I have advanced and the repairs made, I could suit myself until such time, the committee shall have no further use for the house in sixth street.

The following letter was received from Henry Wynkoop, Esq. chairman of a meeting of sundry inhabitants of Bucks county, held at Newtown the 19th Instant covering sundry resolutions of that meeting for the relief of the poor—which the President is directed to answer.

Bucks County, October 19th, 1793.

Gentlemen

Permit your fellow citizens of Bucks County, to detain your attention a few moments from your laudable and unremitted exertions in the cause of humanity—Equally impressed with a sense of the obligation, which as men, and citizens of the same common country, we are all under to afford each other every assistance in our power, they request that you would suffer them to share the honors of benevolence, and partake with you in the offices of social affection—The exemption of their particular district from the dreadful calamity which now afflicts your devoted city, far from creating an indolent or unfeeling security, suggests to their minds only the idea of what ought to be expected from them and every other citizen of our hitherto prosperous community on this lamentable occasion; for they can conceive no more acceptable method of testifying their thankfulness to the All-wise disposer of human events, for his particular mercy towards them, than by entertaining a proper tenderness for the sufferings of their fellow-men, and a cheerful readiness to narrow the dominions of distress—They would also consider themselves as having rejected all regard for the social tie, if, whilst members of other societies are voluntarily coming forward with offers of assistance, they should be remiss in their endeavours to alleviate the misery of our fellow citizens—Under these impressions a number of the inhabitants of Bucks County convened upon public business, joined by others whom a common principle of benevolence had associated with them, came to certain resolves, a copy of which will be found enclosed, for the purpose of procuring relief for the sick, and poor inhabitants of Philadelphia. Their distance from the scene of calamity not permitting them to afford any other aid than a pecuniary one, they appointed the committee who now address you to make the necessary arrangements for the collection of donations throughout the country, on the charitable occasion. The committee have accordingly met and taken every step in their power to execute the charge entrusted to them; and they are happy to inform the committee of Philadelphia, that such is the general disposition of the inhabitants of the county, that they are confident their donations will do no discredit to their charity towards the distressed, or their affection for their fellow citizens—The monies collected will be lodged with the treasurer of the county, and wait the order of the committee of Philadelphia. What we wish principally at present is, that you would inform us of the place where, and the persons to whom you would wish the payments to be made; A letter therefore upon this head directed to the chairman of the committee will meet with due attention—In the mean time be assured that we are the friends of our fellow citizens, and particularly of those who are in distress: And may the great Ruler of the universe who ever chastens with the tenderness of a parent, look with compassion upon the sufferings of his children, and put a period to their afflictions—We remain worthy fellow citizens with esteem and sincerity,

Your friends and Humble Servants.

(By order of the committee of Bucks County, for procuring relief for the poor and sick inhabitants of Philadelphia.)

HENRY WYNKOOP, Chairman.

That Matthew Carey, James Sharswood and Caleb Lownes be this committee.

It having pleased Divine Providence to favor us with an agreeable prospect of returning health to our long afflicted city—And as several of the members of the committee are desirous of attending their respective places of worship, it is Agreed, that those who have no indispensible duties to perform at the City-Hall, be at liberty to withdraw their attendance to morrow.

"The committee for the relief of the sick and distressed feel the highest pleasure in announcing to their fellow citizens throughout the United States, that the abatement of the disorder is beyond all expectation, and affords the most flattering prospect of our being soon freed from it entirely.

They however strongly recommend to the absent citizens of Philadelphia, not to return for a week or ten days, or until there shall be a considerable fall of rain; as the change of air might prove dangerous, and probably be fatal to many."

"It is earnestly recommended to the citizens who have removed to the country during the prevalence of the disorder, and whose houses have been shut up, that previous to their being reoccupied, they cause them to be well aired for several days, by opening all the windows and chamber doors, in order that a free circulation of air may take place.

Burning of nitre will correct the foul air which they may contain.

Quick lime should be thrown into the privies, and the chambers white-washed, especially where any of the family have been afflicted by the disorder; the former is of the greatest consequence.

The changeable state of the weather having induced the committee to believe that a too sudden return of our fellow citizens may be attended with dangerous consequence it was agreed to address them upon the subject—the following was prepared and sent for publication.

FELLOW CITIZENS.

The unsettled state of the weather, changing suddenly from cold to heat, and from heat to cold, renders it unsafe for our fellow citizens, to croud, with too much precipitation into the city, especially into houses which have not been prepared in the manner heretofore recommended.

Although we can with confidence assert, that the disorder hath abated, as was formerly mentioned, and that there is the greatest reason to hope that it will shortly disappear; yet we cannot say that it is totally eradicated; as there is reason to fear that it may still lurk in different parts of the city. The committee wish to impress upon the minds of their fellow citizens the absolute necessity of causing those houses to be opened and aired, which have been long shut up, before they venture to return; and that this be done instantly by themselves, to prevent the necessity of its being done in another way.

"The inattention of a number of the inhabitants, in whose houses the late disorder hath prevailed, in not opening and cleansing them, agreeably to the recommendations frequently repeated, hath induced this committee in conjunction with the assistant committee to enter into the following resolutions.

"Resolved, that it is highly expedient to have all houses and stores in the city and liberties, wherever the malignant fever prevailed, purified and cleansed as speedily and completely as possible; and to have all those well aired, which have been closed for any length of time, and that it be recommended to the citizens to have unslacked lime thrown into their privies.

The return of health to the city affording much consolation to the committee, it was on motion Agreed, to cause the following communication to be printed for the information of our fellow-citizens.

"After the long continued distress with which our city hath been afflicted, the committee have the happiness to congratulate their fellow-citizens upon the return of as great a degree of health, they unanimously believe, as usually prevails at this season of the year.

"They have heard of no new cases in the malignant fever for many days; and they have great reason to suppose that there will not remain any vestige of it in the city or suburbs after a few days.

"Applications for admissions to the hospital at Bush-Hill have ceased; Of ninety one patients who still remain there, the physicians are not apprehensive of losing above three or four: The convalescents increase daily.

"Among the great number of our citizens who retired to the country, it doth not appear that one of them hath been attacked by the disorder since their return; reports to the contrary have been circulated, which upon investigation have proved to be false.

"Purifying the houses where the disorder hath been is essentially necessary to prevent future infection. The committee think it incumbent upon them to repeat to their fellow-citizens, and to urge in the most pressing manner, the performance of this important duty.

"Clothing, either for the body or beds, which hath been made use of by the sick, and more particularly for those who have died of the disorder, should be washed, baked, buried or destroyed. The loss which would attend a total destruction, will not, it is hoped be put in competition with the life or health of an individual, much less with those of the community.

"The committee are of opinion, that our fugitive brethren, as well as others, who have business to transact may safely come to the city, without danger from the late prevailing disorder."

The managers Report, that they received no patients, that they have buried one man and one woman—and sent one to the convalescent house.

The committee appointed to prepare an answer to the Governor's letter, produced an essay, which being read was approved. The letter and answer are as follows.

Gentlemen,

"As I am desirous to lay before the Legislature, a particular statement of the circumstances, that have attended the calamity, with which the city has recently been visited; and as your benevolent exertions have afforded the best opportunity of information on the subject: permit me to request the favor of such answers as you may be able to give to the following enquiries,

"At what time and place did the disorder make its appearance; and to what quarters of the city did its ravages extend?

"How many citizens have died since the commencement of the disorder; how many recovered, who had been afflicted with it; and what number of orphans have been deprived of their parents on this occasion?

"What accommodations and supplies were provided for the sick and poor; what monies have been disbursed, and what debts have been incurred?

"What is the amount of the charitable contributions for the relief of the sick and poor, distinguishing between the amount of the actual grants and engagements by way of security, to the Bank, for making loans?

"What measures are necessary to purify the city from any latent infection; and what general precautions ought to be taken to guard against a similar calamity in future?

"The same motives, which prompt me to make this application, will induce you, gentlemen, to excuse it; and, I am confident, that we may all securely trust to the sympathy and liberality of the Legislature, for aid and support, as well to defray the recent expences, as to provide against the return of so great a calamity.

I am, with sincere esteem,

Gentlemen,

Your most obedient

humble Servant,

THOMAS MIFFLIN.

Germantown, October 30, 1793.

COMMITTEE CHAMBER, City-Hall.

November, 1793.

"The committee for the relief of the sick and poor of the city of Philadelphia, in reply to the several queries proposed to them by the Governor, answer;

To the first:

That the malignant disorder, by which so many of our citizens have been taken off, made its first appearance about the latter end of July, in Water Street.

Its ravages were for some time confined to that street, between Mulberry and Sassafrass streets; from thence it extended northwardly up Water street to Vine Street. Front street within the above limits was next attacked, whence it spread into the parallel streets, up those which run East and West; the greatest havock being nearest the river Delaware, and becoming more feeble in its progress to the Westward; this will more clearly appear from the account of the number of houses, &c, in the different streets, lanes and alleys in the city and suburbs, hereunto subjoined.*

To the second:

The committee have procured pretty accurate lists from the several burial grounds in and about the city, of the interments from the first day of August to the ninth day of November;* from these it appears that four thousand and thirty-one persons, of all ages, sexes and disorders, have been buried during that period.

It is impracticable to discriminate the number taken off by the malignant disorder, no accounts having been kept by the sextons, or other persons, to whom the registering of burials was committed, except in two instances, viz: in the burial grounds belonging to Christ Church and St. Peter's.

There are no data from which the committee can form a calculation as to the number of those who having been afflicted with the disorder, have recovered.

The committee have received into their care since the commencement of the disorder, one hundred and ninety-one children, who have either lost one or both of their parents, and the survivors being sick or so much reduced in circumstances as to render the attention of the committee absolutely necessary.

The whole number admitted into the orphan-house, and the present state of it is as follows, viz.

Admitted one hundred and ninety-one: Died seventeen: Returned to their friends forty-nine: There remain one hundred and twenty-five of which at present there are in the house eighty-one, and of infants at nurse forty-four.

The committee are so much affected by the situation of the orphans under their care, that they beg leave to recommend them in a particular manner to the Governor's notice.

To the Third:

At the first appearance of the disorder the general consternation was so great, that those whose particular province it was to take care of the poor, knew not how to act; terror soon put them all to flight, except three, whose exertions merit the highest encomiums; worn down with fatigue, a call was made upon the benevolent citizens to come to their aid, a meeting of a few took place, who voluntarily offered their services in the dangerous undertaking.

A second meeting was obtained, when a committee consisting of twenty-seven persons was appointed, the majority of whom undertook the task, but from death and other causes the business was principally conducted by twelve only. This committee formed themselves into sub-committees to whom different parts of the business was assigned—one of which undertook the extreme hazardous part of attending at and managing the hospital at Bush-Hill; Another to receive applications for the removal of the sick to the hospital, and of burying the dead.

The great increase of deaths soon left a number of children without parents or friends to whom to apply for protection; some of those were found in the houses from whence their parents had just been removed to the silent grave, deploring their loss in the greatest agonies of distress.

A committee was appointed to provide a house for their reception; a matron and nurses were employed.

As the effects naturally resulting from the accumulated distress of the more indigent citizens, many of them were reduced to such a situation as to require immediate supplies of the necessaries of life.

For this purpose another committee was appointed, who have for several weeks past daily distributed to about two hundred families, for one weeks support, of the following articles, which have amounted upon an average to four hundred and forty loaves of bread, fifteen cords of wood, one hundred and fifty dollars in money, per day, besides meat, meal, vegetables, &c.

A number of citizens undertook to act as an Assistant Committee in recommending suitable objects for those supplies.

The whole amount of disbursements for the various objects already mentioned is not less than twenty thousand dollars; the particulars cannot yet be ascertained with precision.

To the Fourth:

The charitable contributions already received in money amount to twenty-two thousand dollars. Some of our fellow-citizens, individuals of the committee, before it was known that one dollar would be contributed by donations, borrowed upon their personal security of the Bank of North America, six thousand five hundred dollars; others of our fellow-citizens have since signed a guarantee to that bank, to make good the amount of fifteen thousand dollars, if the committee should have occasion for further loans.

The committee having thought it a measure extremely requisite in order to purify the city from the latent infection, that respectable citizens should be requested to undertake the trouble of going to every house where any person had been sick, or in which any had died of the disorder, to recommend it to the possessors, to cause them to be opened and thoroughly cleansed.

The Gentlemen who had before undertaken to act as an Assistant Committee, cheerfully added this to their labours; they have made considerable progress in the business, and by their exertions will undoubtedly execute it in the most satisfactory manner, as far as their influence can extend. There are some refractory persons who either insensible of the danger to which themselves and their fellow-citizens may be exposed from a non-compliance, or from obstinacy, occasion some difficulty. It is hoped that this, as well as proper means to cause all infected clothing, and more especially beds and bedding, to be purified or destroyed, will attract the Legislative attention.

The precautions necessary to be taken to guard against a similar calamity in future, will require much consideration. The committee are of opinion that a health-office, upon a more extensive plan than the present, is of the greatest importance, and that the residence of the officer and physicians should be at a suitable distance below the city.

That a healthful spot for the site of an hospital, nearly contiguous to the city, easily accessible by land and water, together with requisite buildings for the accommodation of those who may be attacked by malignant disorders in future, are among the most necessary means for the purpose of prevention.

From the want of such a place, to which the sick might have been removed, at an early period of the late disorder, may be ascribed the great terror which incapacitated the inhabitants from giving that assistance to their fellow-citizens, by which many hundred lives might have been saved.

The increasing trade of the city, and the great number of people who are daily arriving from all parts of the world, expose us to every species of infection that prevails in other places, the necessity of efficient measures being immediately taken to guard against future dangers become therefore indispensable.

By order of the committee,

MATTHEW CLARKSON, President.

As the disease has now abated and many of the children in the orphan house may have connections who do not know where they are,—the committee are of opinion that it would be advisable to publish a list of those remaining under their care; requesting the surviving relatives, if any there be, to call and take them away; It was on Motion Agreed, that the following advertisement be published, in order that their connections be informed of their situation and the committee be relieved from their charge.

COMMITTEE CHAMBER, CITY-HALL,
November 26, 1793.

The orphans remaining under the care of the committee, being the principle objects of their anxiety, they consider them as a deposit in their hands, for which they ought to give the most exact account; they therefore are of opinion that the first measure necessary to be taken for the benefit of those innocents, is to publish a list of their names, informing their relations and friends that the committee are ready to deliver them to their nearest connections. In doing this, it is to be understood, that the most satisfactory testimony will be required in support of every claim.

The committee appointed to wait upon the Secretary of the French Legation Report, that they have attended to their appointment, informed him of the terms on which the sick and wounded, under his care, were to be accommodated at the hospital, the circumstances on which the committee hold that place, and which he must be subject to; to which he fully agreed, and expressed himself well satisfied with the attention of the committee towards these afflicted people; and in addition to the terms stipulated, it was further agreed that four dollars per man be allowed for the interment of all the French people who may die at that place.

As the business of the committee is drawing to a close, it was considered as an indispensable duty that compensation be made for the use of the property, which hath been occupied by our afflicted fellow citizens, as an hospital at Bush-Hill: The subject was again brought before the committee, and after fully considering the circumstances of the business, it was Agreed, that the proprietor be presented with Two thousand dollars for the time it hath been occupied as an hospital, and until the 25th day of March, 1795. As there are fears existing in the minds of some of our fellow-citizens that the disease may again make its appearance in the spring; and there being at present no provision made for the accommodation of such as may be afflicted with malignant disorders, it was thought advisable that endeavours be made to retain the priviledge of re-occupying that place, for the like purpose. The committee, to whom was entrusted the management of the business, are requested to use their endeavours to effect the object of the committee.

It was further agreed that the committee appropriate five hundred dollars for repairs of said hospital; which may now be presented to the proprietor, should it be more agreeable to him to make the repairs himself; if not, that it be reserved in trust for that purpose.

And on Motion it was Resolved, that Stephen Girard, Peter Helm, Thomas Wistar and Caleb Lownes be trustees to hold the said sum of five hundred dollars, and to dispose of it agreeably to the foregoing resolution. Israel Israel and Caleb Lownes were appointed a committee to attend to the foregoing business and to report.

That the committee having nearly completed the business for which they were appointed, and feeling anxious for the future welfare of these Innocents, so peculiarly placed by divine providence under the care of the public, request the General Assembly, as the fathers of the people, to take the case of these orphans into their serious consideration, and make such further provision for their maintainance and education, as in their wisdom shall seem proper.

The apology offered by Thomas Wistar, the treasurer, for not attending the meetings of the committee for some time past, on account of his health, which rendered it unsafe for him to go abroad in the evenings, was accepted.

Stephen Girard produced the following propositions relative to preparing the business, so as to enable the committee to resign the trust committed to their charge, viz.

'To the Committee for the relief of the sick, &c.

Gentlemen,

As a manager of the Hospital at Bush-Hill and the one who organized that institution, I think that as we are advancing toward the moment of closing the business intrusted to our care by our fellow-citizens, it is my duty to state to you my ideas upon that subject in the following manner:

First. That the managers shall not admit into the Hospital any patients to become chargeable to the public, except those who may have an order of admittance from the committee, and the managers shall also take proper steps to reduce as much as possible the expenses of said Hospital.

Second. The convalescents, old aged or infirm persons, now in the hospital, shall be immediately discharged.

Third. The sick in the Mansion-house shall be taken care of until they are fit to be discharged or removed with safety.

Fourth. Two or more members of the committee should be appointed to wait on the Minister of the French Republic, with direction to give him notice of the approach of our dissolution, and to request him to provide a place for the reception of his sick now in the Hospital at Bush-Hill, and also to ask of the said Minister the payment of a bill handed to him by the committee which is still unpaid.

Fifth. That the committee will take into their consideration the services which Mrs. Mary Saville, matron of said Hospital, has rendered to our sick brethren in that institution, and make to this valuable woman such compensation as they shall think adequate to her merit.

Sixth. That a sufficient sum of money be immediately borrowed, either from the banks or private citizens, in the name of the committee, for the purpose of paying and discharging every debt &c. relative to the Hospital at Bush-Hill, and contracted by the committee since the 16th, of September last.

Seventh. At the period of the dissolution of the Hospital—an inventory of every article belonging to it should be made, and after having cleansed the house, goods and furniture, that the goods should be stored, together with the drugs, medicine &c. belonging to the apothecaries and doctors department, in one or more rooms of the Mansion-House under lock.

Eighth. With regard to the property belonging to the deceased patients at the Hospital of Bush-Hill, deposited by the managers in the hands of the committee, consisting of twenty two pounds five shillings and five pence in money, five pocket-books or bundles of paper, three silver watches, seven pairs of silver buckles, one pair of silver buttons, one silver tea-spoon, five gold rings, three and a half pairs of ear-rings, and one box.

I shall make the following proposals:

Ninth. The money, say twenty two pounds five shillings and five pence, to be lodged in the hands of the treasurer.

Tenth. The papers and pocket-books, with the inventory of the same, to be deposited in the hands of the secretary.

Eleventh. The silver watches, buckles, &c. to be delivered to Mr. Connelly, with directions to sell those articles at vendue, and to render an account thereof to the committee, and the nett proceeds, into the hands of the treasurer.

I am with Esteem
Gentlemen, Your most obedient,
Humble Servant,

Thomas Wistar, Treas.	Thomas Savery,

Caleb Lownes, Secretary.

The committee appointed to inspect the state of the Hospital Report, that they have attended to that service, that they have discharged eleven of the patients, and that they are of opinion, that although there still remain some in a very feeble and low state, yet that the whole may with care be removed, in a few days, without material injury, most of them being in a fair way of recovery; those having habitations in the city will be able to provide for themselves, after gaining a little more strength; there yet remain fifteen in the Hospital.

Whereupon it was Resolved,

That the committee continue their attention to the business and have the house cleared, the nurses and attendants discharged, and the accounts prepared, in order to a final closure of the business of the committee.

The committee appointed to consider the services of the matron, and what compensation should be made to her in addition to the stipulated wages at which she was employed to conduct her department at the Hospital, Report, that they have made enquiry into her conduct and services, and find that they have been highly commendable; that she hath performed her duties with great propriety and fidelity; that her unremitted care of the numerous sick, her sympathetic and maternal attention to the afflicted not only merits the approbation of the committee, but justly entitles her to the grateful acknowledgements of her fellow-citizens, and that she ought to be presented with a further compensation, as a reward and in testimony of the sentiments which the committee entertain of her services. Which report being approved, it was Agreed, that the compensation shall be determined at a future meeting.

Israel Israel, John Connelly, and Caleb Lownes were appointed to wait on the Minister of France, and inform him,—that the committee are bringing their business to a close, that it will not be in their power longer to continue their care of the sick French citizens, who were received at Bush-Hill by request of the secretary of the French Legation; that although by agreement they were to be removed when the sick citizens should be discharged, they may nevertheless remain where they are, until a suitable place can be obtained to which they may be removed with convenience to them and our fellow-citizens; subject however to the directions of the trustees who have that place under their care.

On Motion Resolved, that the President, S. Girard, James Sharswood, John Letchworth, Thomas Wistar, John Connelly and Caleb Lownes, be a committee to enquire into the unfinished business necessary to be brought forward and report thereon.

Stephen Girard produced an additional proposition for the consideration of the committee, which being considered of great consequence to the health of our fellow-citizens, it was Agreed, that it be recommended with the others, to be promoted as far as the opportunities and influence of the committee will permit.

Which proposition is as follows:

To the Committee for the relief of the sick &c.

Gentlemen,

In our answer to the Governor's letter, respecting our opinion in taking the necessary steps to prevent as much as possible, a future calamity in the city and suburbs, we have omitted that essential part of cleansing the docks, which the filth and dirtiness at low water contributes greatly in giving an infectious air through the whole city.

In order to make proper observations on that subject, I propose to leave it to a committee of four, who will report thereon the next meeting.

I am with Esteem, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient Servant,

STEPHEN GIRARD.

Eighty eight dollars received from Montgomery county by the hands of James Morris, Esquire, and eleven dollars and eighty ninetieths from Mount-Holly by Peter Shiras, Esquire.

The committee appointed to settle with William Hamilton, Esquire, having performed that business, the committee are enabled to answer the question proposed to them by the guardians of the poor, relative to affording assistance in discharging the debt arising from the possession of the property at Bush-Hill, for the use of the afflicted citizens, it was on Motion Resolved, that the committee formerly appointed to wait upon the guardians of the poor

The committee think it a duty incumbent on them, to add that in the performance of this service, the affectionate and tender expressions of the patients, and the kind manner in which the separation between them and the worthy matron and faithful attendants took place, affords the strongest reasons to conclude, that the arduous undertaking hath been performed with every attention and tenderness, which the nature of the afflicting calamity would permit; and that the survivors will long remember, with grateful sentiments, the benefits which they have derived from an institution, supported by the liberal donations of sympathising fellow-citizens, in this and neighbouring States.

ALBANY, January 28, 1794.

Dear Sir,

We have the honor to transmit you the sum of 866 $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars collected by voluntary donation pursuant to the inclosed resolves.

We should have addressed you at an earlier period, if we had not been prevented by the distresses of our fellow-citizens, occasioned by a fire which has recently destroyed the most flourishing part of our city, and from its consequences been the means of lessening the sum we expected to raise for the relief of the poor in Philadelphia.

We sincerely deplored the loss of the many valuable citizens you were deprived of by the late contagious disorder, and rejoice that all fears of its return are at length dissipated.

We are Sir with sentiments of esteem your very humble servants,

The subject of compensating Mary Saville being again taken into consideration, it was Agreed that as the committee have not funds to reward her, that her meritorious services be stated to the general meeting of the citizens.

On Motion Resolved, that the Treasurer pay into the hands of the orphan committee the sum of three hundred dollars to enable them to discharge the debts due from that institution, and for the present support of the orphans, until more effectual measures shall be provided.

The committee appointed to draw up a report of the proceedings of this committee, to be laid before their constituents, produced an Essay—which being considered, and having undergone some alterations was agreed to.

The Secretary is desired to request the attendance of the Citizens, at the City-Hall on Saturday the 8th Instant at 3 o'clock, to receive the said report, which is as follows—

Having been appointed a Committee on the 14th, of September last, at a meeting of the citizens, called by the Mayor, for the purpose of alleviating the sufferings of our fellow-citizens, who were labouring under the afflicting sickness, which then prevailed; we have requested your attendance, in order briefly to report to you our proceedings; refering you for more particular information to our minutes, which are in the press, and to our accounts, now produced for your inspection.

Upon entering on the duties of our appointment, we found many families of the poor struggling under disease and want. And that the house of William Hamilton, at Bush-Hill, which had been taken possession of, and converted into an hospital, for their accommodation, contained several sick persons in a deplorable situation. Two of our members offering their services to superintend that institution, they were appointed managers thereof, and by their exertion and attention it was conducted with order and regularity. About one thousand persons were removed to it (in carriages provided for the purpose) and supplied with every requisite, to render them comfortable, that the exigency of the times and our situation would admit of.

Notwithstanding the great mortality which prevailed there, we think ourselves warranted in the belief, that much distress was prevented and the sufferings of many greatly alleviated. We cannot with propriety omit informing you, that the tenderness and care exercised by Mary Saville (the matron of the Hospital) to the sick, were such as intitles her to your generous notice.

The extreme distress to which many families were reduced rendering it impossible for them to procure the interment of their deceased connections, it became one of our most pressing duties to provide for the burial of such persons, and therefore we procured coffins and carriages, and employed suitable persons to attend to this mournful part of the service.

In the progress of the disease, many children were bereft of their parents, and the general distress preventing individuals from attending to their exposed situations, we were impelled to take charge of such orphans, and of course it became necessary to provide a suitable house, with a matron and attendants and a number of wet nurses. This was done and the whole placed under the direction of four of our members especially appointed for that purpose: of one hundred and ninety-two of these helpless innocents, who came under our care, ninety-four have been reclaimed by their friends, twenty seven have died, and seventy one yet remain; on whose behalf we have applied to the Legislature, but as they have not come to a determination on our application, we therefore earnestly recommend these orphans to your immediate attention.

The calamitous state of the city caused an universal stagnation of business and increased the number of the indigent so much, that in order to obtain a knowledge of their real situation and guard against imposition, in relieving their wants, we found it necessary to call for assistance; when a number of respectable inhabitants of the city and suburbs came forward to our aid, under the title of the Assistant Committee, who rendered very essential service by recommending suitable objects; which facilitated the distribution of money, provisions and firewood, from the 14th October to the 23d November, to upwards of one thousand families weekly.

These different operations requiring considerable funds, and the major part of the overseers of the poor, as well as most of the officers of government and police being removed; recourse was had to the President and Directors of the bank of North America, who cheerfully accommodated us with six thousand five hundred dollars; which we have been enabled to repay, by the subsequent liberality of our fellow-citizens of this and other states, whose donations to us have amounted to twenty nine thousand and eighty five dollars seventy five cents, besides which we have received 5316 dollars, 32 cents, for sundries mentioned in our accounts: which sums fall short of that expended by us, three thousand two hundred and forty five dollars twelve cents.

The mode of supplying this deficiency you will doubtless conceive to be a part of the business of the present meeting.

As no public provision is made in case we should be visited with a similar affliction (to which all great commercial cities are exposed) it was deemed essential, after compensating the proprietor of Bush-Hill for the use made of his property, to secure a resort to it again, should it be found necessary, before the 25th of March, 1795; this was done and it is still in our possession—wherein are deposited such articles as remain on hand belonging to the Hospital. The appropriation of these articles is an object which will claim your attention.

The consideration of the propriety of establishing an Hospital in the neighbourhood of this city, for persons afflicted with infectious diseases, which at the time of our appointment was referred to us, would have claimed our more particular attention, had not the subject through the recommendation of the Governor, been taken up by the Legislature.

We think it proper to inform you, that on the 13th day of October, a number of sick and wounded Frenchmen arrived here, on board the ship Citizen of Marseillies from off Cape Francois; which alarming the inhabitants, we at the pressing solicitation of the secretary of the French legation, and to dispel the public fears, admitted these diseased strangers into part of the buildings at Bush-Hill, the expenses which occurred, have been reimbursed.

Although we have to lament the loss of Andrew Adgate, Jonathan D. Sergeant, Joseph Inskeep and Daniel Offley, four of our members, who faithful to the trust reposed in them, perseveringly discharged, with the most benevolent attention, its various duties, until death put a period to their exertions, and they fell themselves under the blow they were warding off from others; yet while we look back with mournful regret to the loss of our companions, gratitude to the supreme disposer of events requires our acknowledgement of his interposition in the preservation of our own lives, and those of so many of our fellow-citizens.

By desire of the Committee,

MATTHEW CLARKSON, President.
